

Legal help for Maine residents 60 and older

Prevent Future Legal Hassles and Get the Legal Advice You Need

Legal Services
for the Elderly

Free Legal Help for Maine's Seniors

Call our Helpline 1-800-750-5353

www.mainelse.org

Legal Services for the Elderly can help you with issues like these:

A friend or relative is hurting, threatening, or taking advantage of you.

Someone is trying to get guardianship over you.

You are the victim of a scam.

Bill collectors are bothering you.

You may lose your home or be evicted.

You have been denied MaineCare (Medicaid) benefits or drugs under Medicare Part D.

You want to know how to plan ahead in case something happens to you.

You have a problem with Social Security.

You are worried you'll lose your house
if you go to a nursing home.

You were pressured into signing a loan you can't afford to pay.

Even if you're not sure what kind of legal help you need, call us, and we'll help you sort things out. LSE services are free and confidential.

Since 1974, LSE has helped tens of thousands of Maine seniors. LSE is a non-profit supported by grants from the U.S.
Administration for Community Living,
State of Maine, Maine's Agencies on Aging, the United Way, the Maine Justice Foundation and donations from private attorneys, clients and others. We gratefully accept your tax deductible donations.

Call our Helpline at:

1-800-750-5353

(V/TTY: 711)

(Out of State: 1-207-623-1797)

Go to our Elder Rights Handbook at:

www.mainelse.org